This book is indicated for children of atheists, agnostics and skeptics. The children of skeptics, atheists and/or agnostics sooner or later will question why his/her family do not believe in any God as the family of some of his/her friends do. Often the parents may feel confused and unsure how to explain the children why they are different to some people. This book explains in a simple illustrated and directly way what Gods are and the reason why some people believe in them and how we can be good people without God.
