

Rediscovering God in America: Reflections on the Role of Faith in Our Nations History and Future

In this updated and redesigned edition of the New York Times bestseller, Newt and Callista Gingrich invite you on a walking tour of Americas capital city; Washington, D.C. As a reminder of Gods role in the history and future of America, Newt and Callista Gingrich give readers a look into the architecture and beauty of the nations Capitol in REDISCOVERING GOD IN AMERICA. Readers will take a walk through Washington, D.C. to view the nations monuments and memorials, including the National Archives, where Thomas Jeffersons immortal words jump off the page. But this is not simply a walking tour of the city; this is a tour of American history--of great men and women, events, documents, institutions, and ideas--all shaped decisively by the genuine belief that America is a nation founded under God. Readers will quickly find themselves on a profound path of discovery and renewal.
