

An old mans musings on Christianity: Was Jesus mortal or divine?

Was Jesus mortal? Is there evidence of his existence outside of the New Testament? Was the entire story of Jesus's divinity fabricated by a fledgling religious cult? I explore this in my musings on Christianity. I make several assertions including: Assertion 1: Jesus was mortal not divine. Assertion 2: Jesus was never resurrected at any time. Assertion 3: Peter lied to Paul when they first met. Assertion 4: The Gospels were fabricated for newly converted pagans. I also answer the answer the following questions. 1. Why did the Jews reject Jesus 2. Why are there no historical records of the crucifixion and resurrection? 3. Why were Peter and Paul at odds with one another? 4. Why did Paul succeed where the Apostles failed? 5. Why do the gospel accounts differ, sometimes significantly? 6. Why was Acts written? 7. Why was the Council of Nicaea necessary? As a bonus I've included a list with annotations touching on biblical contradictions throughout the old and new testament. If this book is successful I plan to make this into a series and maybe create a website for feedback. If you enjoy this book please let me know in the reviews section.
