

Firestorm (Fighting Fire Series Book 1)

When a wildland fire lands Scott McGregor in the burn unit and sends his career up in smoke, a decade-old emergency contact card brings his former college lover, Robby Hammond, to his hospital bed. After six months of hospitals and rehab, Scott starts a new life as owner of the Mountain Shadows Campground. Maybe learning to run a bed and breakfastâ€™not to mention dealing with the permanent residentsâ€™will keep him from making Robby the center of his universe. Again. Leaving San Francisco to take a part-time position as a law enforcement ranger makes no sense at this stage of his life, but after Scottâ€™s critical burns, Robby moves to Flagstaff anywayâ€™to take up residence at Mountain Shadowsâ€™which has nothing to do with his long-buried feelings for his ex. Despite the white-hot attraction that still burns between them, too much is at stake for Robby to take that chance. Again.

Torn apart a dozen years ago by an unlimited ability to cause each other pain, each man believes the relationship door is firmly closed, but when life brings them back together, Scott is still the irresistible force to Robbyâ€™s immovable object, and where thereâ€™s smokeâ€™thereâ€™s fire.
