

The Muslim Womans Handbook

THE MUSLIM WOMAN'S HANDBOOK is a practical guide to daily life as a Muslim woman in a non-Muslim society. It tackles such matters as Ibadah (worship), menstruation, Hijab, education, work, health etc. in a down-to-earth manner. These are basic matters, but ones which we need to fully understand. This book is the result of the author's personal experience and observations of the issues that a Muslim woman needs to be aware of. Aimed at born Muslims and reverts alike, THE MUSLIM WOMAN'S HANDBOOK should be on every Muslim woman's bookshelf. HUDA KHATTAB is a British Muslim writer. Born in Blackpool, Lancashire, she embraced Islam in 1983 and received her BA (Hons) degree in Arabic from the School of Oriental and African Studies (London University) in 1986. She is the author of a children's book, Stories from the Muslim World (Ta-Ha Publishers), and has translated several works from Arabic into English.
