

On Faith, Intolerance, & Internecinum Bellum - A Monograph (Series III Book 1)

This monograph is an exploration of the flaws in human nature & culture which cause violence in monotheism. Concepts included are: fanatical certainty, a brief history of religious violence, emotional disinvestment, hypocrisy, psychosis, cultural & personal illusions or delusions, curiosity, doubt, un-provable religious belief as a "virus of the intellect," the origin of the soul, the fanatic as self-appointed god, inherited religious affiliation & the unfairness of persecution in that light, religious violence against scientists, the basic religious schema vs. the rationalist™s or realist™s perspective, existentialism, emotional impulse, blind faith, the role of theology, and a response to accusations of bias leveled against science.
