

Safety & Security: In the light of Hadith and Quranic verses

INTRODUCTION Whatever Rasulullah [PBUH] has said, is the absolute truth and Haqq. There cannot be an iota of doubt in this. If he taught the Ummah to recite any ayah, wazifah or du`a for their safety against any eventuality, no Muslim would doubt the authenticity of that. They would recite such an ayah, wazifah or du`a, believing with conviction that its recitation would afford him safety only through the will of Allah Taâ€™Mala. On one occasion Rasulullah [PBUH] advised a companion to tie his camel and then rely on Allah Taâ€™Mala for its safety. It is clear from the above that confining oneself to the recitation of the relevant verses, wazaif and du`a, and not adopting the physical and practical security measures, is in conflict to the teachings of the Qurâ€™an and Ahadith. One is compelled by Shariah, to adopt physical as well as spiritual measures against crime and calamities. Physical would be, amongst other things, locking and securing ones property while spiritual would mean to recite Ayatul Kursi, the four Quls and salaah. The one compliments the other. Through the barakah of both types of measures, Allah Taâ€™Mala will give the reader the safety he needs, Insha-Allah.
