**This book is part of the Pulp Friction 2014 Collection** Scott refuses to accept his mistake dealt a final blow to his troubled relationship with Rob, so heâ€™s working hard to finish the apartment he plans for them to share. With odd occurrences of vandalism, a poacher, and an increasingly active inner demon named PTSD, he has plenty to keep him busy while he waits for Robby to come around. Rob is working a lot of overtime in order to qualify for a new position as a wildland firefighterâ€™a minor detail he decides to withhold in light of Scottâ€™s frequent nightmares. Of course there are a couple of other details Scott has a right to know aboutâ€™if only Robby hasnâ€™t left things too late. Just as one man discovers his truthâ€™the other realizes everything heâ€™s believed is a lie. One is certain they can work things outâ€™the other knows why they canâ€™t. Only one of them can be right.
