

Flare-up (Fighting Fire Book 4)

For Rob Hammond, the last two months have been a high stakes waiting game. Scott's attempt to swan dive into an arsonist's fire and his subsequent desire to be more independent didn't sit well. Unfortunately, Rob's other obligations wouldn't wait. Now after a long separation, Robby is finally reunited with his kids, and on his way to introduce them to their new home and the man he loves. This time, he's going to make Scott see reason—even if he has to fight dirty. With the recent trouble at Mountain Shadows and the increasing frequency of his nightmares, Scott McGregor has to wonder if this is the best time for a relationship with Robby to go forward. Still seeking absolution for a guilt he shouldn't carry, Scott worries he's not fit to meet the children—let alone live with them. Despite arranging a special day to make the kids feel welcome, Scott still intends to protect his heart. One man knows they will work things out—the other is afraid they can't. Only one of them can be right. This book is part of the Pulp Friction 2014 Collection About Pulp Friction 2014 Laura Harner ~ Lee Brazil ~ Havan Fellows ~ T.A. Webb The Pulp Friction 2014 Collection. Four authors. Four Series. Twenty books. One fiery finale. Spend a year with an eclectic group of strangers brought together through circumstances, as they are tested by life, and emerge as more than friends. The strongest bonds are forged by fire, cooled in air, smoothed by water, grounded in earth. Although each series can stand alone, we believe reading the books in the order they are released will increase your enjoyment.
