

Thank You: Gratitude Journal

This Gratitude Journal is a tool to help you along life's journey. Gratitude is a positive emotion. It is being thankful for what we have rather than being obsessed or angry at what we do not have. This, however, does not always come easily so we need to be deliberate. This journal will help you focus on what is good in your life, things usually taken for granted. Develop a gratitude habit by taking a moment to notice the good things that happen no matter how small or big. Then, write it down in your journal. Writing it will help you reinforce this emotion leading to a happier, healthier you. *Also available on Amazon in different cover designs by Ceo Publishing.
