

How to be a Muslim Woman, Divorced, and Totally CONFIDENT

â€œHuffington Postâ€• published that in Saudi Arabia, every single day there are forty new applications for marriages and twenty a day for divorces. Divorce rates in the Muslim world are reaching fifty percent. In second marriages and third marriages, the numbers are exponentially worse. With divorce rates increasing, so does stigma, shame, and pain. Muslim women are struggling with raising their kids, making painful decisions, and learning to be alone again. Our communities do not have the resources to manage this overwhelming increase in marital breakdowns and helping women to rebuild their broken lives. How to be a Muslim woman, divorced and totally confident helps you to release your pain, shame and guilt and co-create a life with God that is peaceful, prosperous and full of potential.
