The Passionate Friends by H.G. Wells Reviews, Discussion A married woman has one last fling with her childhood sweetheart in The Passionate Friends (1949), which was based on a novel by H.G. Wells and directed by David Lean. The protagonist is the novel's first-person narrator, Stephen Stratton. The Passionate Friends is written as if addressed to Stephen's eldest son, who is on the way to war.

Based on a story by H.G. Wells, this romantic drama centers on the love affair between a miserable Swiss wife and her old flame, whom she has not seen in years.
