

A Book of Jewish Thoughts

This famous collection of inspiring thoughts conveys the spiritual and ethical richness of the Jewish faith. Offering prose and poetry culled from the great Jewish sages, philosophers, Biblical commentators, eminent historians and many others - as well as selections from such famous non-Jews as Tolstoy and Mark Twain. A Book Of Jewish Thoughts provides provocative reading to both Jew and Non-Jew alike. Its words have a sense of beauty and permanence which serve to sensitize the reader to the unique insights of the Jewish tradition about God, man and the world.
