

Trust the Curves

Janiece Rendon is a woman filled with tenacity, passion and heart. Laid off five times in 31 years from the same Fortune 500 company, she learned what she calls the F.A.C.T.S. of Life (Forgiveness, Attitude, Choice, Trust and Step into Your Greatness.) These simple F.A.C.T. S. kept her in the game and thriving through her many moments of uncertainty. Trust the Curves is about finding opportunity in the most difficult situations by keeping your attitude going in the right direction. Janiece began her career in production without a high school diploma. Inspired by the teachings of Zig Ziglar, she was determined to take advantage of the educational opportunities she never had growing up. Not only did she graduate from her high school at 34 years old, she went on to earn a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration: Human Resource Management, and later graduated with a dual Master of Arts degree in Communication and Psychology. Today, she is an Adjunct Professor of Public Speaking at Colorado Heights University. Janiece inspires others through her keynotes, trainings and private coaching. She lives in Denver, Colorado with her husband and daughter, is an avid photographer, and makes daily Facebook posts on her journey of "Walking with Janiece."•
