

The Immortal I: Toward a Fourth Psychology of Being/Loving/Knowing

This book represents a synthesis of the Perennial Philosophy and most major schools of psychology. It introduces a new paradigm of person, hierarchy of needs, and an explanation of human motivation and behaviour: physical, emotional, sociological and spiritual. This synthesis implies a new love/belief therapy, distinct from but consistent with all the principles of client-centred, rational-emotive, cognitive-behavioural and psychosynthesis therapies, as well as the principles of christianity derived from a fresh critical exegesis of the Four Gospels.
