

Through His Eyes (Fantasys Bar & Grill Book 4)

Imagine an island of fantasies only for adults. A place where every desire you had was brought to life at the hands of people who knew exactly what fulfilled your needs. Now stop imagining and step onto the private oasis of pleasure named Fantasy Isle. What happened when Fantasys Bar & Grill went native? A stimulating world of desire was born and you're personally invited to wet your feet in the first full-length adventure that started it all. What's your price? If someone offered you an opportunity to never worry about finances, and have everything in this life that had been denied before, would you still hold on to your morals and refuse? I always thought I would. But two million dollars is a hell of a big incentive!

I considered myself a strong, independent woman, until the recession slammed me down face first. Had my situation been different I never would have considered taking his offer! Cade Stellan. Billionaire, and closet pervert. He liked to watch. And I'm not referring to sporting events! He wanted a woman that he could control and unfortunately, I'd caught his attention. I say unfortunately because as much as I wanted to deny him, the price he offered proved that I could be bought. Why a man like him had to pay for anything would never make sense, nor would why he had chosen a person like me to fulfill those needs. As much as I wanted to turn him down, and prove to myself that my standards were higher, I knew I wouldn't. A world of passion awaits you on
