

Wetherby Brides Second Epilogues (Regency Historical Romance) (The Wetherby Brides Book 6)

Carnevale Honeymoon...Thanks to her mad cousin, Becky never got to take that honeymoon to Italy that she and Stephen had planned on. Several years later, the opportunity finally presents itself and they arrive in Venice just in time for Carnevale! But will they ever be able to find one another in the costumed madness? Find out in this steamy second epilogue to More than a Governess! ---Return to Dunbocan! In this haunting second epilogue, Phoebe and Benjamin head north to visit their family at the Dunbocan estate in the highlands of Scotland. Mischief and mayhem ensue upon their arrival, which is to be expected, especially since Katherine, Duchess of Weston is in residence as well. Plus sneak peaks at Loving Mister Lockwell, from the Danby Christmas Summons Anthologies and The Robber Bride, the first book in the Daring Debutante series!About the Author:Jerrica Knight-Catania left her "glamorous" life as an actress in favor of becoming a romance author, where she could write about truly glamorous lives. She currently resides in New York City with her real-life hero of a husband, their shy Russian Blue, Dr. Snuggle, and their beautiful daughter who is most definitely a princess-in-training.
