Etta Gertz noticed him as soon as she stepped off the train. With broad shoulders and a kind face, he was everything sheâ€™™ hoped for. She stepped up and introduced herself to Karl Angerhofer. Without any explanation, he told her to go home. He couldnâ€™™t mean it! Karl looked at the woman in front of him. She was so pretty but so small. He had to send her back for her own safety. He learned a long time ago he couldnâ€™™t be trusted with anything fragile. Can Etta get through Karlâ€™™s defenses and help him see what a wonderful man he is before itâ€™™s too late?
