

Literature, Gender, and Nation-Building in Nineteenth-Century Egypt: The Life and Works of `Aisha Taymur (Literatures and Cultures of the Islamic World)

This book examines how the process of nation-building in Egypt helped transform Egypt from an Ottoman province to an Arabic speaking national community. Through the discussion of the life and works of the prominent writer `Aisha Taymur, Hatem gives insight into how literature and the changing gender roles of women and men contributed to the definition and/or development of a sense of community.
