

Moment of Impact (Summer House Series)

He was her parents worst nightmare. And he was everything she wanted...

MOMENT OF IMPACT, book 2 of the Summer House Series

Do you remember that moment when you wanted time to stand still? When you could anticipate the train wreck ahead but had no way to stop it? Or stop the desire you had in your heart to protect the person you loved? To Lily Carlson, running toward the oncoming train was better than being suffocated by her parents goals and strict regime. While they wanted her to spend her days taking summer classes and then go to Harvard, all Lily wanted to do was dance and spend a summer on Nantucket Island living in The Bluffs, the name of the summer cottage she was renting with three other girls. She wanted to experience everything shed missed. No curfews. No hitting the books and missing out on parties and meeting hot guys. She was finally free to be herself. And then she saw the man staring at her as she walked along the waters edge to work. Shed been dancing and it was clear he liked watching her dance. Drawn to him like a moth to a flame, she couldnt stop herself from seeking him out only to discover that he was a drug she couldnt resist...and everything her parents feared.

Gus Jennings knew that he was every parents worst nightmare. He hadnt exactly lived his life on the right side of the law. He had his reasons, not that anyone understood them. There had never been anyone in his life who believed in him enough to care. He needed to spend a month working landscaping on Nantucket Island and keep himself clean or face the harsh consequences. He knew when he saw the beautiful Lily Carlson dancing down the beach on her way to work that he should just turn his head and forget her. But Lily was irresistible, and she made it clear that she wanted him. He only hoped that he could get close enough to touch her, to be with her, without his past coming back and destroying her future.
