

Young at Heart : The Mature Womans Guide to Finding and Keeping Romance

This insightful guide is written for mature women who are having trouble finding a compatible man to date or who are already in relationships but have burning questions. Dr. Zukerman offers refreshingly honest advice based on her clinical, academic, and personal experience, accompanied by true stories. In a practical and realistic way, the book answers all the questions mature women have about the contemporary dating scene. It covers issues such as meeting people on-line and through personal ads, safety concerns, where to go on your dates, how to attract men and how to protect yourself and your assets. It includes a few true cautionary stories as well as many more true success stories of people who found fulfilling relationships after age 50.
