Perfect book for the beach. --Library Journal on High Season
Kat Parker thought shed finally escaped being known as the housekeepers daughter in the class-obsessed polo town of Wellington, FL. With her first blockbuster screenplay, shed become the Hollywood It girl-until with one flop suddenly she wasnt. Heading home is her only option. Kat knows she can write another hit...if only she can find the right story. What she finds instead is the drop-dead gorgeous celebrity athlete Sebastian Del Campo, whos just as well known for his tabloid exploits as he is for his prowess on the polo field. For Sebastian, everything in life has always come easily-wealth, sports, women. But the perennial party life is starting to feel a bit stale. Especially after meeting Kat. Her easy laughter and candid attitude make him aspire to something more meaningful for the first time in his life. As Sebastian tells Kat stories of his grandmother Victoria, a woman who could be dripping in diamonds one moment and tearing up the polo field the next, Kats inspiration fires and soon the pair are back in Hollywood, working on a film together that could make or break both of their careers. And though the chemistry between the two is building, the films irresistible star has other ideas... Polo Season series: High Season Wild One Ride Free
