

Mid-Life Dating: Pitfalls and Pleasures

Self-help genre. Advice for middle-aged women contemplating the dating world. What can you expect out there? What are some of the mistakes I made and things that I learned from 14 years of experience. This book is 18 vignettes of true relationship episodes and their consequences. It chronicles the adventures and situations I encountered while searching for Mr. Right. My stories should either inspire or scare away those women in middle age thinking about entering the dating world. Its fun reading as well as a heads-up to the multitude of situations you might encounter. Its quite different when we and our dates have a lot of baggage and/or expectations that come with age and experience.
