

Are there Wheelchairs in Heaven? And other questions to ask your gods.

If you could make only one phone call to the heaven hotline, what would it be? Would you try validating your religion? Your god? Your belief in heaven? Or would you want to know why those other religions have such funny customs? And which ones are right? Does it matter which religion you choose even though most of us simply inherit our parents choice - which is usually based on geography and not anything any cleverer than that? This quick book of questions is a great starting point for any religious discussion group. It will help you zoom out and look at all the major religions and make you think a lot, smile and little, then study more intensely when you do zoom down one of the popular belief trails of the world.
