

The Educators Privilege

The Educators Privilege Compiled By: Rabbi Eliyahu Friedman Translated By: Rabbi Aryeh Leib Solomon It is said that a teacher affects eternity, for his influence will last forever. In The Educators Privilege, just released by Kehot Publication Society, educators are treated to a wealth of uplifting inspirational messages from the Lubavitcher Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, of blessed memory, on the privileges of dedicating ones life to the higher calling of Jewish education. During his more than forty years of leadership of Chabad-Lubavitch, the Rebbe explored a vast array of educational concerns that underlined the place of Jewish education at the forefront of Chabads program. The Rebbes teachings provided encouragement and reinvigoration to those serving as educators, and inspired many others to engage in educational activity, whether in the role of a teacher, parent, or supporter of institutions of authentic Jewish education. Today we are fortunate to be in possession of several thousand articles of educational correspondence as well as transcripts of talks by the Rebbe on educational concepts. The present compilation of succinct citations drawn from the Rebbes writings and addresses on the role of the educator, collected by noted scholar and author Rabbi Eli Friedman of Safed , Israel, and translated by Rabbi Aryeh Solomon of Sydney, Australia, also offers a glimpse into the inspiration behind the far-reaching educational infrastructure of the world-wide Chabad-Lubavitch movement.
