

Does It Matter How We Got There? An Original Transportation Life History.

Have you ever heard the saying “Don’t let your life pass you by”? This narrative speaks to this idiom by interpreting this statement as a call to action for all of us participating in fast-paced market economies saturated by disposable commodities. It may come as a surprise to some, but, in fact, life IS passing us by and we are often doing the peddling and the driving ourselves. We are literally sitting in the drivers seat and time is passing by as we are making our way to and from life’s many sorted adventures. Unfortunately, all too often, we don’t take the time to connect our personal stories to our meaningful voyages across space and through time.
