

True Stories. Short: Personal Stories that are True

My transition from being an analytic show me proof (after all, my University Major was Economics, an Mathematics Minor -BORING-) type of person to being a spiritual outside the box person open to awesome new revelations. First Shot: A professor in a class at U.C., Berkeley pointing to a student in his class, asking What Religion are you? Later, to another student, asking What Political Party do you follow ? That class allowed me to question my own beliefs. Second Shot: An insane night in the basement of Childrens Hospital in San Francisco, where in front of doctors and nurses in attendance, a new technology (going to the alpha level of your mind) was introduced by the most spiritual person I ever met had, a 17 year old boy on a stool with no medical training diagnose accurately ailments at a distance, knowing only the age location and name of the patient.
