What an earl wants isn't always what he gets! British Billionaire and modern day earl of Spenserfield, Sebastian Romanov only wants one thing in life: To reclaim his position as president of Romanov Industries. But first he has to clean up his reputation to convince the Board that he's a dependable bloke who's willing to put the company above everything, including his personal life. Finally given an excuse to sort things out with his estranged twin brother, he boards a jet to Holland Springs, North Carolina, never dreaming he'd find the solution to his all his problems in the town's sexy caterer, Daisy Barnes. She's going to serve him his just desserts! Daisy Barnes, owner of The Sweet Spot, has plans. Plans that don't include posing as some arrogant yet sexy as hell earl's fiancée. But when unexpected insurance bills to the tune of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars from her mother's unsuccessful battle with cancer come due, she's forced to accept his offer and his money. Only problem for Daisy underneath that cold exterior is a man that can set her on fire with just one touch. As Sebastian and Daisy spend more time together, they find it harder and harder to not give into temptation. Soon neither can tell where the fake romance ends and true love begins!
