

The Choice of Every Woman

Just as men have duties that are not binding upon women... such as praying in congregation, providing for ones family, fighting in the way of Allah, etc.; women have duties that are not binding upon men.... such as wearing Hijab, raising children while the men are gone out to work, etc. This involves nothing more than a distribution of duties. The choice is with every woman: Will she follow the ideas and morals that are formulated by human beings, whose minds are inherently deficient, or will she follow what her Lord has commanded her to do?
