

Shadows in the Vineyard: The True Story of the Plot to Poison the Worlds Greatest Wine

Amazon Best Book of the Month, July 2014 Journalist Maximillian Potter uncovers a fascinating plot to destroy the vines of La RomanÃ©-Conti, Burgundys finest and most expensive wine. In January 2010, Aubert de Villaine, the famed proprietor of the Domaine de la RomanÃ©-Conti, the tiny, storied vineyard that produces the most expensive, exquisite wines in the world, received an anonymous note threatening the destruction of his priceless vines by poison-a crime that in the world of high-end wine is akin to murder-unless he paid a one million euro ransom. Villaine believed it to be a sick joke, but that proved a fatal miscalculation and the crime shocked this fabled region of France. The sinister story that Vanity Fair journalist Maximillian Potter uncovered would lead to a sting operation by some of Frances top detectives, the primary suspects suicide, and a dramatic investigation. This botanical crime threatened to destroy the fiercely traditional culture surrounding the worlds greatest wine. SHADOWS IN THE VINEYARD takes us deep into a captivating world full of fascinating characters, small-town French politics, an unforgettable narrative, and a local culture defined by the twinned veins of excess and vitality and the deep reverent attention to the land that runs through it.
