

Stone Cold Legacy (A Stone Family Novel Book 2)

One of the Infamous Stone Girls, Jessica Stone, heir to Maximillion Enterprises, lives her life, her way. Inheriting a legacy she refuses any part of, she raises Arabian horses on her stud farm. Away from the lime light and her demanding grandfather, animals, she trusts, people are a different story. They have their own agenda, especial men, her grandfather, in particular, because of his scheme to marry off his granddaughters to men of his choosing. She believes herself safe from his plot, or so she thinks. Sent to treat a horse in distress, by Max, she quickly realizes it may be that she is the one in jeopardy. Mistaken for the vet's assistant by the arrogant Prince the horse's owner, and accused of poisoning the animal, she flies to his home in Qadim with him. Struggling to conceal her true identity, she plans her escape. All the while, trying not to land herself in his bed. All she needs is another over bearing opinionated, know it all male in her life! Denying his own legacy Prince Hassan Al Azhar does not believe in fairy tales or the curse of the first King and Queen of Qadim. Knowing ones destiny is preordained is something for children to hear around the campfires, in the desert of the Oasis. However, faced with the captivating creature before him, selflessly and compassionately aiding his prized stallion quickly throws his beliefs and world upside down literally. Never confronted with a more suborned woman in his life, who refuses to even tell him her full name and treats his servant better then she dose him, he has little choose but to take drastic measures. Not wanting her to escape him, and fearing for her safety with the attempt on his life, he follows family tradition. Kidnapping her, he places her within the walls of the harem. For he knows from the moment their eyes connected and he witnessed the purest of hearts that lay locked inside her eyes that his fate and that of his people is sealed. Only she has the power to destroy him, or save him, from a fate worse than death. For she is his chosen mate his destiny and a woman of legacyâ€¦. Forced to see not everything is as it appears from the wall of the harem to the assassins sent to kill Hassan they both must face the challenge of finding their true selves. As they struggle to a find away to bridge the gap between their legacies the true meaning behind the history passed down to both of them, is revealed. To fight for their future together each will have to choose the love they discovered for each other and confess all. Only the truth will set them free, and hopefully the two can get it right before her grandfather invades the palace along with a preacherâ€¦ This the second book in the series A Stone Family Novel, for those of you following the family? Yes, Maximillion along with Alex and Ty will make an appearance in this book. Just as before Max is hell bent to marry off all of his granddaughter so he can retire along with Frank.
