ABOUT THE AUTHOR: John McDougall (1842–1917) was a famous pioneer, civil servant, missionary and politician and published author from Alberta, Canada. John McDougall was born in 1842 in Sydenham, Upper Canada. He moved west with his father George McDougall to the small prairie town of Norway House in 1860. He worked for multiple governments on first nations issues over the years. McDougall ran for a seat in the Legislative Assembly of Alberta in the 1913 Alberta general election under the Alberta Liberal banner in the electoral district of Centre Calgary. He was soundly defeated.
