

Steering Clear of The IRS While Legally Minimizing Your Taxes

You don't have to be rich to afford to hire a tax professional to prepare an in-depth written tax plan to legally minimize your taxes. So why not do what the rich do and take action so you can keep more of what you earn? The tax code is filled with many opportunities that can be utilized legally to reduce your taxes. Unfortunately, these opportunities often get overlooked by the masses. Lawrence Danny is not just a practicing CPA; he also is a J.D., Certified Tax Coach, and Former IRS Agent who has experience on both sides of the fence. Danny's book, "Steering Clear of The IRS While Legally Minimizing Your Taxes," exposes the opportunities hidden in the tax code that are frequently overlooked. It is a must-read as it gives proactive suggestions to business owners, realtors, real estate investors, self-employed professionals and others on how to utilize the Internal Revenue Code advantageously while not crossing the line. His "Steering Clear Strategies" explain the proper records to keep and specific steps to take to legally reduce one's taxes and stay aboveboard. Danny's suggestions will keep you on your toes and out of trouble in case of an IRS tax audit. His book reveals the hidden advantages buried in the tax code. If his ideas are utilized, you can keep more of what you earn and not leave money on the table.
