

Grieving the Loss of Your Pet: How to Survive Your Journey

This book talks compassionately about grieving the loss of your pet. It can happen under different circumstances such as trauma, illness, old age, selling, disappearance or even theft. The phases of grieving are discussed along with struggling with the possibility of euthanasia, helping a friend grieve the loss of an animal as well as teens and children coping with pet loss. It also covers ways to help prevent theft and disappearance. It talks about pets going to Heaven. It covers remembering your pet and the emotions of choosing when to replace your beloved pet with a new one. And it talks about bonding with your new pet after losing your old one.
