

The Marked Star (Shadow Watchers Book 2)

PEOPLE ARE NOT WHAT THEY SEEM Superstar Elle Bostwick is kidnapped in London. But who has kidnapped her? NINA, a group of powerful and ruthless opportunists who will do anything to anyone to gain access to something Elle has that they want? Or the CIA, who is equally determined to prevent NINA access to what it wants? And why a singer? Why Elle? And why does she not know what theyâ€™re after? Days later, Elle mysteriously turns up at a Shadow Watcherâ€™s wedding reception, and the Shadow Watchers, Nick Sloan specifically, is ordered to keep her safeâ€™indefinitely. But the top secret entity issuing the orders doesnâ€™t say why or who is pursuing Elle. All information is being atypically withheld. That has never before happened. Why now? OLD WOUNDS RUN DEEP Nick and Elle have a history. He left her without even saying good-bye, determined to never need or want anyoneâ€™not after surviving his horror show of a family. Nick learned the hard way to never dare to love anyone. He didnâ€™t know Elle had been walking wounded, too. Now sheâ€™s burst back into his life--with baggage that could get them and the other Shadow Watchers killed. Who is on their side? Who is their real enemy? And what does that enemy really want? Most importantly, will they find out before they end up dead. CAN LOVE HEAL THEMâ€™IS IT ENOUGH? Nick willingly risks his life for her, but does he dare to risk his heart? Does Elle? Both have little reason to trust.

Little reason to dare, except for the hope of love they find in each other. But neither is certain. Is love enough to heal deep wounds? To spare the lives and hearts of Nick and The Marked Star?
