

Muhammads Companions: Essays on Those Who Bore Witness

In an exciting and lucid way, this work tells of the interaction of the life of the Messenger with the lives of 33 Companions, 13 of whom are women. These people are blessed with being able to participate in the Islamic movement in its making. This work will help students and adults alike to understand the early history of Islam through their lives. Vocabulary controlled, each story is followed by identifications and discussion for the classroom setting.
