

Have Lipstick, Will Travel: How to reimagine your life, purpose & hair color!

Have Lipstick, Will Travel ~ How to reimagine your life, purpose and hair color is dedicated to women wondering what in the heck to do next in their lives. It's a book for women of all ages trying to understand their life purpose, discover their passion and find their voice. You'll travel with me as I embark to familiar and sometimes unknown territories; experience my stories of lessons realized and insights gleaned; hear my tales of self-discovery; and read a narrative about a woman who is a mother, daughter, sister, wife who finally understands that coping with change and conquering fears are easier when wearing a brand new shade of lipstick. My book is divided into five colorful sections: Coral Bliss, Rich Ruby, Bronze Treasure, Frozen Rose, and Fuchsia Fever. You'll learn what each lipstick color signifies to me and what it can mean for you, too. Within each color section will be travels, insights, and lipstick pearls of wisdom that I hope will be helpful as you set out to reimagine YOUR life, purpose and hair color. Why lipstick you may be asking? Because I believe "Change your lipstick, change your life" is more than a metaphor! I've always sought and found the perfect lipstick that helped me feel whatever I needed to feel in the moment. Brave. Sexy. Youthful. Adventurous. Whatever! Lipstick even helped motivate me during my weight-loss journey when my body size was cut in half.
