Value Bar Prep books - author of SIX published bar exam essays - Look Inside!! ! ! !! - Excerpt: Normally, the 4th amendment is offended when government agents engage in random stops to seek evidence of crime, as this leaves them too much discretion about who to stop, how, why, and when. Government agents conducting stops are normally required to do them in a systematic and non arbitrary or discriminatory manner, such as by stopping every third vehicle, or every blue vehicle (assuming there is an articulable and unavoidable good law enforcement reason for these stops).
