

Actions Speak Louder

When Marcia Elton got married, she signed up for the forty-year plan. Unfortunately, her husband Jay had other ideas. At thirty-two, Marcia is divorced and starting a new life. An interest in home renovation and repair has prompted her to purchase a hardware store, and she sets about trying to achieve business success. When Ethan Winslow moves into the bungalow next door and begins renovating it, she is not entirely pleased. He is sweet, attentive, and easy on the eyes. But Marcia isn't looking for a relationship. She is skittish, thanks to her ex, who did a number on her self-esteem. Can Ethan persuade Marcia he is nothing like her ex? Can he prove to her that she can trust him? And most important, can he win her love?
