

Moonlight Surrender, Cassandra in Moonlight: Two American Revolution Historicals

Two full novels from Marie Ferrarella's™ historical series on the Revolution MOONLIGHT SURRENDER The lady and the pirate! Beautiful, stubborn Elizabeth Beaulieu leaves her Virginia home to search for her aristocratic father who has disappeared into the horrifying turmoil of the French Revolution. Duncan Fitzhugh, bastard son of an English earl and close to Sin-Jin, attempts to stop her with seduction, then to aid her, and finally, to marry her, all in a whirlwind of international travel and intrigue. CASSANDRA IN MOONLIGHT The witch and the Irishman Accused of witchcraft and in danger of her life, Cassandra and her family escape to Morgans Creek, Virginia and set up a cabinetry shop at the same time the new American country is setting up its own new government. The rakish editor of the local paper, Riley ORoarke is the last man she should fall for, but his passion and courage make the choice inevitable. Now, while fate and desire entwine their destinies, a menacing danger once again stalks Cassandra--a threat so dire, so brutal, it could destroy all she holds dear. From the halls of Monticello and the brilliance of Thomas Jefferson to the passionate furor of a country finally at liberty, Cassandra and Riley will have to fight for a love that cannot be bound by old rules.
