

Happy New Life (Grandberry Falls Book 2)

I just wish there was a real Grandberry Falls I could visit. Reader, Lisa DeGross's Carpe Beadem is fun with a capital F. Its sad, funny, inspiring, quirky, and great chick lit! It shows that you never know what's round the corner, and anything's possible if you just take a chance on life! Perfect summer reading. Bestselling author, Sibel Hodge loved how Tonya Kappes was able to bring her characters to life. Coffee Table Reviews loved this book. Grandberry Falls is my kind of town and I for one would love to live there and get to know all the local folks. I enjoyed reading this book and can't wait to read the next book about Grandberry Falls by Tonya Kappes. I have added Tonya Kappes as one of my new favorite authors. Jean Segal love it when I pick up a book because of its cover and the story to follow is just as great or better. That's what happened here. Stephanie Overton read this in a day and loved it! You felt that you were part of Grandberry Falls. The small town folks who know everyone and know everything about someone in a matter of hours. Avid Reader This book was fun, entertaining and good to the last page. Who knew reading auras could get Olivia in so much trouble? Sit back, smile and cozy up to Splitsville.com, where Olivia does the dumping for you. There's heap loads of humor, a dose of magical realism, sprinkles of romance, and mystery when someone ends up dead. Author Lisa Lim was looking for something different and easy to read...meaning nothing too involved, something that if I put down could come back to and remember all the characters and where I left off at...well I didnt put it down I finished it in a day... what a great read !!â€•
