Very highly recommended - Sea Breezes A well-researched, carefully crafted and hugely enjoyable account of one of the most remarkable animals to play a part in World War II - Aberdeen Press & Journal This is the remarkable - and bestselling - story of one of the Second World Wars most unusual animal heroes - a 14-stone St Bernard dog who became global mascot for the Royal Norwegian Forces and a symbol of freedom and inspiration for Allied troops throughout Europe, and captured hearts on both sides of the North Sea even sixty years after his death. From a happy and carefree puppyhood spent as a family pet in the Norwegian fishing town of Honningsvåg, the gentle giant Bamse followed his master at the outbreak of the war to become a registered crew member of the mine-sweeper Thorodd. Often donning his own steel helmet as he took his place in the Thorodds bow gun turret, Bamse cut an impressive figure and made a huge contribution to the morale of the crew, and he gallantly saved the lives of two of them. After Norway fell to the Germans in 1940, the Thorodd operated from Dundee and Montrose, where Bamse became a well-known and much-loved figure, shepherding the Thorodds crew-members back to the boat at pub closing time, travelling on the local buses, breaking up fights and even taking part in football matches.
