

Hegels Speculative Good Friday: The Death of God in Philosophical Perspective (AAR Reflection and Theory in the Study of Religion)

In this book Deland S. Anderson traces the origin of the idea, God is dead, in the philosophy of G.W.F. Hegel. Focusing on issues of language, life, and learning, Anderson presents an integrated perspective on the death of God in Hegels philosophy as it emerged in the early years at Jena. He argues that Hegels pronouncement of the death of God was the beginning of his radically innovative system of speculative discourse, which revolutionized not only philosophy but the wider culture as well.
