Luisa and Gianni Invanali of Calvanico, Italy suffered separation at the hands of U.S. immigration law of 1908. Coming from the village of Calvanico Italy, one's forced return brought with it danger as the family had escaped from an oppressive olive magnate Vincenzo Valenti or as he was known in the village, "VV". Though not much more is known of the Invanalis fate, In Their Paradise is based on additional true elements of the Invanali family and attempts to fill in the unknown details of the family's history. Events in the novel are from true stories of the New York Italian and Jewish mafia, an Italian anarchists bank robbery, and the New Amsterdam Theatre on 42nd Street. About The Author: James M.
