

Selah: A Busy Moms Journey to Devotion

Shannon Carter is a four time published author who is now reaching out to a different audience. Through her experience, she has learned that being a single mom is a different kind of ministry. Her heart of compassion goes out to mothers who spend so much time running around for others that they never take time for themselves. This book will allow moms everywhere to learn how to take a few minutes every day finding their own peaceful and quiet place. Through this book, they will learn how to commit themselves to a time of inner reflection, and communication with God. Shannon uses funny stories from her own experience as a mother to relay biblical truths and life lessons. No matter how busy we think we are, we are no good to our families, if we have not taken the time to care for ourselves spiritually, emotionally, and physically. This book puts mommies on the path to doing just that.
