

They Thought the World Was Flat

...and God groaned, shook his head and said, No you morons, as usual you have it all wrong. Thought-provoking, biting, philosophical, and sometimes humorous, Thomas explores the reasons we hold the religious beliefs we do, and suggests a common sense approach toward them that we should have embraced centuries ago. More than just another atheistic rant, this is a book that dares to call out both sides of the argument while introducing an alternative view that dials down faith and redefines God as something less than a monster.
