

The Story of My Life (with her letters)

The Story of My Life is the Autobiography of Helen Keller, a classic American story of overcoming great hardship. Helen Keller, born in 1880, fell ill at age six. While the illness did not last long it left her both deaf and blind. Helens family soon contacted the Perkins Institute for the Blind and the Institute sent Anne Sullivan, who herself was visually impaired, to help educate Helen. The Story of My Life is a story of a young womans struggle to deal with a great physical handicap. Included here in this edition is a selection of Helens letters and a supplementary account of her education, including passages from the reports and letters of her teacher, Anne Mansfield Sullivan, by John Albert Macy.
