After a terrible start to a friend's birthday party, Annaliese finds herself in a situation in a dark alley she isn't able to escape. When a mystery man in a suit rescues her, it takes everything in her power to get him off of her mind. His eyes, his body, his damn near perfect suited body keep running through her mind. Adam Callahan just wants to get dinner with his parents over with, but before he makes it to the restaurant he is stuck rescuing a woman from the hands of her would be rapist. A woman that, after laying eyes on her, he would do anything to spend just one night with. When fate brings the two together again, sparks fly immediately, but once Adam finds out who this mystery girl is will he stay and own up to what he did, or will he disappear from her life for good?
