

Looking for Country: A Norwegian Immigrants Alberta Memoir (Legacies Shared)

Looking for Country refers to the thought process of animals bent on escape. A stampeding herd, or a spooked horse running away with its rider, may be described as looking for country. It could also be applied to this memoir in another sense -- immigrants were looking for land, a piece of new country, and, perhaps, an escape from their old country. Looking for Country: A Norwegian Immigrants Alberta Memoir documents the experiences of a young woman growing up as a pioneer in Alberta. Although, for many people, immigration brought great sadness, Ellenor loved Alberta and took tremendous pride in the years spent there. She did not deny the struggles, as shown in her writing, but was amply rewarded by the satisfaction of knowing that I have had a part in the making of a great country.
