

Beaus California Bride: A Clean Sweet Historical Western Romance (The Pinckney Brands and Brides Book 2)

This is a clean, sweet, historical western romance. It is a novella of approximately 24,000 words set in the 1870-1880s. Beau Pinckney, is not looking for romance. He has been tasked by President Andrew Johnson to investigate the mysterious death of a prominent California rancher and a personal friend.. The other part of the assignment is to protect the widow and her beautiful twin daughters. As a twin, Beau is fascinated by the twin daughters. The fascination turns into a romance, but first, he must solve the murder of their father and stop the man trying to take their ranch.
